

Good Afternoon All,

Thank you for making our inaugural dental networking group a success! We're so glad you joined us today. Special thanks to Dr. Leslie, our leader and facilitator, as well as our guest speaker, Amanda Belleville from Rowan-Cabarrus Community College.

Attached, please find a copy of Amanda's presentation.

For those who weren't able to join today but might like to catch up, you can also access a link to today's meeting here:

Please let Dr. Leslie or I know of any future topics you might like to discuss or speakers you're interested in inviting. We will reach back out to let everyone know of the next quarterly dental networking group. Once again, thanks to each of you for this time of learning, connecting and sharing today!

All the Best,

Allison
